

District Sales Consultant - Gillette, WY

Are you looking for a new opportunity with a strong, stable and financially smart company? Then join CWD sales team as a District Sales Consultant!

As one of the largest privately owned food service distributors in the Midwest, our family owned company has a history of building strong relationships. The continued growth of current and new markets is what we have been successful at and as a District Sales Consultant, you will be a part of. We're seeking great people looking for professional and personnel growth and a place to make a difference in peoples lives. If you are interested in joining an innovative, supportive, values driven company, we invite you to consider a career with Cash-Wa Distributing. This sales opportunity is within our industry leading sales division, which offers a wide variety of products and solutions to meet the needs of customers across the entire food service, retail, and hospitality industry. After completing an initial training program, you will be assigned to an existing territory of restaurants, cafeterias, hotels, schools, long term care facilities, convenience stores and more. You will serve as the face of Cash-Wa for your customers, providing solutions for food costing, menu ideas, and margin control in an ever changing business environment. We are looking for candidates who will reside within 60 miles of the greater Gillette, WY, area. Foodservice and Retail experience is preferred.

Responsibilities:

The primary responsibility is to perform Sales and Marketing initiatives as directed by CWDs upper management. This will include the active soliciting of new accounts and the growth of existing accounts. This will include the marketing of all CWD programs along with the various related segments of business including, but not limited to C Stores and all Foodservice Commercial and Non-Commercial accounts. The responsibility also includes developing a profitable sales territory and working with operations to develop profitable delivery routes. The expectation will also be to work with accounts receivable for prompt and timely collections. The District Sales Consultant will report directly to their Regional Sales Leader, so that they can collectively develop a profitable territory for CWD.

Duties:

The duties will include daily travel whereby the District Sales Consultant will work directly with customers in the designated territory of responsibility. We will identify certain areas of priority and take an evergreen approach as we evaluate the growth and re-prioritize quarterly objectives. This also includes all segments of business and all product lines stocked by CWD. Also, as the business grows in the territory, it is expected we continue to grow our market share with new and present customers to build a relationship based on the value CWD will bring to the territory. The broader duty is to bring CWD to the area as a dominant broad line distributor that is known for its service and integrity. The idea is to lead customers to a company that is on the move and grows true partnerships.
