

BUY AMERICAN & READY-TO-EAT (RTE) PRODUCT STATUS

Buy American – Percentage US Content

Section 104(d) of the William F. Goodling Child Nutrition Reauthorization Act of 1998 requires schools and institutions participating in the National School Lunch Program and School Breakfast Program in the contiguous United States to purchase to maximum extent practicable, domestic commodities or products for use in meals served under the program.

The legislation defines “domestic commodity or product” as one that is produced in the United States and is processed in the United States, substantially using agricultural commodities that are produced in the United States.

On behalf of Kikkoman Sales USA, Inc., I hereby certify that the products listed below are manufactured in the USA, of which percentage of U.S. content is at least 51%;

Additionally;

Ready-To-Eat (RTE)

According to the Food & Drug Administration (FDA);

Ready-to-eat food (RTE food) means any food that is normally eaten in its raw state or any other food, including a processed food, for which it is reasonably foreseeable that the food will be eaten without further processing that would significantly minimize biological hazards

The products listed below are Ready-to-eat (RTE).

Further processing of these products by the manufacturers requires reevaluation of the RTE status.
